

SUDDEN DEATH AT FARINA.

Farina, June 5.

This evening the sad news of the sudden death of Mrs. Craig, one of the oldest and most respected of the local residents, cast a gloom over the town. After partaking of a hearty dinner, the deceased, who was 65 years of age, went about her housework. Shortly afterwards, however, she rushed to her husband, who was seated in an easy-chair, and falling on her knees at his feet, sank over his lap unconscious. Mr. Craig placed her on a couch, and hastily summoned some neighbors. No doctor resides in the town, and although everything possible was done for the unfortunate woman, she died without regaining consciousness. Profound sympathy is felt for Mr. Craig.
